Distillation

Le Sélection Single Malt Sivo is distilled from local Quebec malted barley and aged patiently in our distillery.

The Sivo Selection series is the pick of our most prestigious batches. Aged in unique barrels, these distinct vintages have been personally selected and reserved by us. We've put a great deal of care into choosing them based on their outstanding quality and character. Since we produced our first whisky in Quebec in 2015, we've kept our best and most elite barrels closely guarded. Now made available for the first time, their complexity and rarity are sure to delight connoisseurs and collectors alike.

Tasting notes

Le Sélection Single Malt lots change according to the barrels chosen! Consult the label to discover the specificity of the product.
